

Camp Korey's Family Volunteer Days

Camp Korey is hosting its first ever Family Volunteer Days, and you're invited to join!

Volunteering together allows families to spend quality time, while learning new skills, teaching social responsibility, promoting a healthy lifestyle, and instilling a life-long ethic of service.

Two Dates to Choose From!

Saturday, April 25, 2015 10am - 2pm

or

Saturday, July 25, 2015 10am - 2pm

Projects may include:

- Facilities projects - maintenance of the camp property, including cleaning, painting or organizing
- Plant, harvest or weed in Camp Korey's organic garden
- Cleaning lodges and guest facilities

Adult guardian/chaperones are required for volunteers ages 15 and under. At least one adult per five children is required for groups. Minimum age is 7 years old.

Space is limited. For more information and to sign up please contact:
